

Meet Your Tour Hosts

Marvin McDaniel

Marvin has worked full time in the travel industry for over 40 years. He has extensive product knowledge and experience hosting groups on six continents. After graduation from Missouri State University in 1971, he received his commission as an Ensign in the US Navy Reserves.

Following three years on active duty traveling throughout the orient, he entered the travel industry and eventually retired from the Navy as a Commander in 1991. He has owned his own retail agency and was also a principle in an online agency selling hotel reservations which went public and sold in 2001. Today, he and his wife Donna host groups throughout the world, many of which sell out months in advance.

Sarah Van Elsen Dunn

Sarah graduated from Wartburg College in northern Iowa with a degree in Business Administration. After moving to Missouri, she received a master's degree in Entertainment Business and has put together many large and small group events for various music groups. She entered into the travel industry in 2015 when she began working for Adelman Travel.

Over the years, she has traveled extensively across the Americas, the Caribbean, Europe, and Australia. This experience, coupled with her experience working with groups, has given her the insight she needs to properly take care of client's needs. Sarah is detail-oriented and takes pride in planning and executing tours that exceed all expectations.
